Betty Clark was the first female MOA (Montana Officials Association) sanctioned basketball referee in the state of Montana. Her officiating jersey is currently in the west display case in the Cowan Hall North entryway (This Northern Tidbit was provided by Northern's own trivia guru Bill Lanier. I hope to make this a weekly column so keep watching)

Legislative Presentations

Every campus made a 20 minute presentation outlining their accomplishments, goals and challenges. These presentations will be available on the Board of Regents web site.

On Tuesday, Northern's Student Body President, Samantha Clawson went to Helena and gave an excellent public testimony in support of the Governor's budget and the subsequent tuition freeze to the Joint Subcommittee on Appropriations for Education. Terry Schend also gave public testimony in support of Northern's new plumbing and electrical programs. He complimented Northern on how it has responded to the needs of industry and stressed the importance of those programs being offered exclusively at Northern.

Rock the Armory Gym – Feb 8

Midnight to Twelve is an original rock band with phenomenal live shows and amazing fan appeal. Based in Los Angeles, M212 has toured the US extensively while gaining new fans one city at a time. Their touring was launched when their single "SLAM" was featured on the WB's One Tree Hill and subsequently hit the radio airways around the country. This caught the attention of Evanescence and M212 opened for them on their 2003 US tour. In the fall of 2005 Indy label KORD Records signed them to a multi-album deal and immediately put them in the studio. This resulted in the January 2006 release of their album "King of Spain" which has already earned their first radio single, "Remembering."

Opening for Midnight to Twelve will be Havre's own Enzymatic. A brand new cover rock band just breaking on to the local scene, this will be their first show in Havre and proves to be their launching point. Enzymatic will keep you on your feet with the music you want to hear from the 90's and today. Enzymatic is Steve Allison, guitar and lead vocals, Ian Munson, guitar, Joe Lamphier, bass and backing vocals, and Rob Everingham, drums and backing vocals.

Sponsored by ASMSUN Program Council, this concert will be Feb. 8 in the Armory Gym. Watch for more info as this concert date gets closer.
