Thanksgiving Break

There will be no school next Thursday and Friday for Thanksgiving break. As a result there will also be no Northern Network News next week.

Terry Lilletvedt Retires

Thursday was Terry Lilletvedt's last day. She will be retiring from Northern but she will be going to work at Independence Bank. She has been a great asset to Northern and she will be missed.

Board of Regents Update

By: Dr. Joe Callahan

The Board of Regents for the Montana University System met in Missoula Thursday & Friday to discuss and act on a number of issues including a long discussion of the newly proposed Bitterroot Valley Community College (BVCC). There was lengthy testimony before the board by the supporters of the new community college. The Board office, OCHE, prepared a 184 page report with information and questions about the proposal. On Dec. 4th, the Regents will discuss and act on the BVCC request.

MSU-Northern submitted and received approval of faculty emeritus status for Robert Miller, Robert Christeck, and Lloyd Stallkamp. In addition, academic Program Reviews (within the normal cycle) for Northern and other campuses were reviewed. The Board spent considerable time discussing the Governor's Office Budget proposal for the upcoming session. State Budget Director David Ewer, was present and commented on recent trends in state revenue projections and the potential effects for the upcoming legislative session.

John Dunnigan Thrills Crowd

ASMSUN Program Council Sponsored, Musician John Dunnigan Tuesday Night, November 18th in the SUB Ballroom. Since arriving in Montana a generation ago, John has raised a lot of roofs with his spirited, crowd-pleasing music.

PIANAFIDDLE in Concert

Sponsored by Northern Showcase Concert Association, Pianafiddle pianist Lynn Wright and violinist/fiddler Adam DeGraff will be performing Sunday, November 30th at 7:30pm in the Havre High School Auditorium.

Is it bluegrass? Is it jazz? Is it classical, old time, ragtime, blues or Celtic. If Pianafiddle is performing, the answer is YES! "If we like it we play it," and since they have a healthy appreciation for good music, no matter the style, their programs transcend musical genre. Beginning only with a familiar tune, Wright and DeGraff improvise as they go, blending the traditional, the unwritten, and the spontaneous in compelling performances that get toes tapping and hands clapping!

With countless performances, three CD's, and a full length concert DVD to their credit, Pianafiddle continues to engross its fans with traditionally grounded yet spontaneous musical creations that unfold onstage.....different every time. Adam and Lynn love performing, improvising and playing off one another, and ultimately agree that musical boundaries are meant to be crossed!

Pianafiddle will be performing on December 1st at 10am in the Havre High Auditorium for the children of our community.

Tickets are available at the door for those who do not already have a season pass. Adults/$15 and Students/$10 All MSU-Northern students with a student ID are welcome to this performance FREE of charge!!

Hide the Ribbon in Excel 2007

Navigating Through Your Word 2007 Document

When you're working on a long document, it is easy to lose your place. And you can spend a lot of time scrolling through your document to find a particular section. In Word 2007, there is an easy way to navigate through your document: You can turn on the "Thumbnails" view.

With Thumbnails view, you'll see small pictures of each page of your document. While the thumbnails are too small to read, you'll see the general layout of the pages, including pictures and other objects. Also, each thumbnail is numbered, so you can easily jump to a specific page.

When you click on a thumbnail, Word will automatically open that page in the main document area. To open the Thumbnails view, open the View tab. Then, in the Show/Hide section, select Thumbnails.

On the left side of the screen, a pane will open containing thumbnails of your document's pages. To close the thumbnails pane just click the X at the top of the pane.

Tid Bits

By Bill Lanier

This week marks the retirement of Terry Lilletvedt. Terry has been an employee of Northern since September of 1984. To put this in perspective, movies that were released that year included, Ghostbusters, Footloose and Sixteen Candles,. The top TV shows were Dynasty and Dallas. Music acts included, Wham, Yes, Billy Ocean, Romantics and Van Halen. 1984 was the year that the Apple Macintosh was new, the megabit memory chip was introduced, the movie rating "PG-13" came into existence and a postage stamp was $0.20. This was also the year that the Farm Mechanics Building was dedicated and NMC President Dr. Jim Erickson announced his retirement. Did you know that Terry was a cooperative education student? Thank you Terry for all you have done for Northern over the past 24+ years!!
