Summer 2019...

MSU-Northern AOT Student Attends AFA Crop Science Institute

Tracey Reed, an Agricultural Operations Technology (AOT) major at Montana State University-Northern, attended an Agriculture Future of America (AFA) Crop Science Institute this summer in Sacramento, California. Around seventy talented college students with an interest in crop and soil science were chosen to attend the three-day Institute. Tracey was the only college student from Montana attending the Institute, which selects attendees through a competitive application process. AFA provides leadership and career enhancement for outstanding men and women preparing themselves for a career in agriculture.

Shakespeare in the Park Returned to Havre

On August 10, MSU-Northern was pleased to host the Montana Shakespeare in the Parks' free performance of "The Merry Wives of Windsor." During the season (June 12 – Sept. 13), the company traveled more than 7,000 miles and performed in 61 communities. Montana Shakespeare in the Parks is an outreach program of Montana State University's College of Arts and Architecture. We look forward to them coming again next year.

Upcoming Major Events

American Red Cross Blood Drive – Sept. 11

The American Red Cross Blood Drive will be next Wednesday, September 11, from 10 AM-3:30 PM in the SUB. Don't forget to make your own appointment to donate blood at www.redcrossblood.org and enter sponsor code: MSU-Northern.

Fifth Annual Suicide Awareness Walk – Sept. 12

The 5th Annual Suicide Awareness Walk is scheduled for Thursday, September 12, on the MSUN Campus. The theme this year is “It’s time: To ask, To listen, To support.” Participants should begin gathering at the clock tower on campus (behind Cowan Hall) at 6:30 p.m.

Thanks to the generous support of community businesses and individuals, t-shirts will be provided free until they run out. A remembrance wall will be set up for those wishing to celebrate the life of a loved one through posters, photos, etc. Speakers will begin at 7:00. As stories are shared, an opportunity for community members to share how suicide has affected their lives will follow the speaker.

The walk around campus will commence following the sharing. Participants will then be asked to come together in the MSUN/MAT Theatre for a short (20-minute) play, “It’s Time” written by local author, Mark Cichosz. The play focuses on the thoughts and emotions of those affected by suicide.

For additional information, contact Amber Spring at amber.spring@msun.edu or 265-3599 or check out the event on Facebook!
